Occoquan Inn, 3 p.m.
Occoquan, Virginia

Friends, bikers, boaters,
Please come and help us celebrate the life of a most vivacious woman… in fact, Betty Poulsen epitomized the word, vivacious, and always will.

It is Betty Jean’s wish to have her ashes scattered with those of her husband Russ, and so it shall be done. After a family ceremony on the river, we would like to extend a warm welcome to all who knew Betty and Russ to join us at the Occoquan Inn, in the town of the same name, for a sendoff that would make her proud.

Please bring all your warmest memories to share with everyone. An early dinner will be served in a private room with open bar. The festivities will commence at 3 p.m. and continue on toward the evening hours. If you are unable to be present, please email or call John-Michael at the address below in order to convey a special memory or two which can be read aloud at the celebration for all to enjoy. Spread the word to those who knew BJ. Hope to see you--Ted, John-Michael, Jan & Julie.

RSVP: (413) 596-6599 or Jamoof@aol.com
